2011-12 BISHOP'S GAITERS SEASON OUTLOOK

Youth will be served on the 2011-12 edition of the Bishop's Gaiters women's basketball team. Ten of the 12 players on Head Coach Alex Perno's squad are in their first or second years of eligibility, including five rookies. The Gaiters lose a pair of starters, as Katy Germain and Mélanie Ouellet-Godcharles have both concluded their outstanding five-year careers at Bishop's, but return five-year starter Jessy Roy, along with Gabrielle Chamberland and Danna Janvier. The Gaiters will be looking to rebound from a disappointing 2010-11 season that saw them get off to a strong start, but tail off in league play. The season's second half did see the emergence of rookies Danna Janvier and Gabrielle Chamberland, with the latter being named to the league's All-Rookie team, while Jessy Roy returned to the league all-star team .

The Gaiters' 29-game slate gets underway on October 7, as the Gaiters play UNB at the Accreon-Helen Campbell Tournament in Fredericton. Bishop's will also face UPEI— coached by Bishop's alumna Carly Clarke - and York at the tourney. The next week, the Gaiters return home to host the Reebok Shoot for the Cure Tournament, their first home tournament in five years. The Toronto Varsity Blues, the Queen's Gaels and the Quebec Dynamo senior team will visit the Mitchell Gym from October 14-16. The Gaiters wind down the pre-season with a three-game road trip to southern Ontario, and host Carleton on November 6.

The 16-game conference slate begins on November 12, with the Gaiters hosting UQAM. The fall schedule concludes on November 26, when the Gaiters host McGill. The Gaiters will play in the Windsor Holiday Classic over Christmas, and return to league play on Saturday, January 7 at UQAM. The regular season concludes on Friday, February 24 with the Gaiters hosting Laval. The league semi-finals are set for February 28, with the championship following on March 2. The league champion advances directly to the CIS Women's Final 8 (March 16-18 in Calgary), while the finalist advances to the West Regional, set for March 9-10.

Guards

The Gaiters' three returning starters are led by fifth-year point guard Jessy Roy. Roy, the 2011 Bishop's University Female Athlete of the Year, was named a league all-star for the third time last season. The five-year starter led the Gaiters with 12.1 points and 4.2 rebounds per game overall. In league play, she was sixth in the league with 12.3 points per game. She was also third in the league in assists (3.6/game), second in steals (2.4/game) and second in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.1).

Also returning at guard is sophomore Gabrielle Chamberland. A Sherbrooke native, she was named to the 2011 QUBL All-Rookie team, after averaging 7.3 points and 2.3 rebounds per game last year. The 5-9 former Sherbrooke Volontaire finished in the top ten in the Quebec conference in free throw percentage (0.709, 9th) and blocked shots (6, t-10th).

Off the bench, the Gaiters are led by fourth-year guard Annick Stephanny Charles. The Laval native has seen time at both guard positions during her three years, and made 12 starts last season. Overall, she averaged 4.8 points and 3.1 rebounds per game. A tenacious defender, she was sixth in the circuit last season with 1.9 steals per game. Sophomore Catherine Bélanger-Pâquet will also see an increased role. Last year, the former Trois-Rivières Diablo played 17.4 minutes per game, averaging 4.5 points and 2.8 rebounds. Fellow second-year guard Clare Murphy will also be called on to increase her role this season. She averaged 9.8 minutes and 2.5 points per game last year, and was also the Gaiters' leading free-throw shooter, hitting 80% of her attempts.

The Gaiters also welcome a pair of newcomers to the backcourt. Catherine Rondeau returns to the floor after sitting out last year. She spent four seasons with the Cégep de Sherbrooke Volontaires, and was a second-team All-Star in 2008-09. She led the AAA league with 4.1 assists per game in 2009-10, and also made 3.6 steals per game. The other rookie is Marie-Michèle Paquin, a 5-8 Magog native. She helped lead the Champlain Cougars to a provincial silver medal last season. She averaged 13.8 points per game, and was the Cougars' MVP in 2011.

Forwards

Once again, it is a young group of forwards who will wear the Purple and White this season, led by a pair of sophomores. The unit will need to mature quickly if the Gaiters are to return to the post-season.

Second year centre Danna Janvier moved into a starting role in the second half of last season, and is expected to continue in that post this year. The 6-0 native of Laval started eight games last year, and averaged 3.2 points and 2.1 rebounds per game. Her performance was highlighted by a nine-point, seven-rebound performance at Concordia on January 15. The only other veteran in the frontcourt is sophomore Riley Shkimba, a Kingston native who saw spot duty last season. She averaged 7.6 minutes per game last year, and will be looking to take on an increased role.

The rookie contingent is led by Eloisa Katz, a 5-11 shooting forward from Raanana, Israel, who played on the Israeli national under-20 team. She helped Israel to a fifth-place finish in Division B of the 2011 European Under-20 championship. At the tournament, she averaged 9.1 points and 2.6 rebounds per game. Katz comes to the Gaiters after spending two years on mandatory service in the Israeli army.

Chicoutimi native Véronique Fortin-Tremblay joins the Gaiters from the Cégep de Ste-Foy Dynamiques. A two-time CCAA gold medallist, she was named to the Cégep AAA league's Academic Merit list in 2010. She tied for 15th in the league last season with eight blocked shots, and averaged 5.9 points and 4.6 rebounds per game last season. Also joining the Gaiter frontcourt is a local product, Danielle Lumley. A 5-10 forward, she is a graduate of both Alexander Galt Regional High School and Champlain College. At Champlain, she was a two-time provincial medallist, and won the squad's Team Award in 2011.
